When Colonel Outshaw set forth at some length the duties of the hands and carts force. He seemed to think that more money should be given them, and as a result of his statement the committee unanimously recommended that the increase be allowed.

The action of the subcommittee practically settles the question, inasmuch as it is adopted without a dissenting vote, especially a view of the fact that the members of the street cleaning gang of the Health Department are already receiving $1.75.

After the whole Street Committee adopts the recommendation the petition will go to the Council for action. It will be referred to the Committee on Ordinances, Law and Reform, and with this body will remain the fate of the employees.

However, inasmuch as this body increased the pay of the street cleaning force, it is quite probable the hands and carts gang will receive like treatment.

At the last meeting of the Street Committee a lengthy petition was read, pleading that the pay of the hands and carts men be advanced from the present rate to $1.75 a day.

Several members expressed themselves as heartily in favor of the petition, and it looked as if the increase would be recommended without further ado. But then it developed that several of those who had affixed their signatures to the petitions were receiving in excess of the increase asked, and were not even connected with the hands and carts force.

As a result action was held up, the petition being referred to Messrs. Minor, Williams and Mann for investigation and consideration.

Yesterday at 1 o'clock these gentlemen got together in the office of the City Engineer, when Colonel Outshaw set forth at some length the duties of the hands and carts force.
